Liberty Lake S&WD wanted it explained, but didn't assert that they were inappropriate. The rationale was discussed many times before the public comment period.

The permits and fact sheets were sent to Hanh Shaw when issued, if other issues come up and you want to see what the "public" concern was.

Subject: Comments on Spokane River permits

Richard, Pat:

I was wondering, did you receive any comments on your draft Spokane River permits, which asserted that seasonal average limits were inappropriate? I'm trying to anticipate whether I might receive similar comments on the Idaho permits.

Thanks,

Brian Nickel, E.I.T.
